WHAT IS COMEDYSPORTZ?

Two teams of players compete in an improv match for laughs and points, with a referee getting suggestions from the audience and calling fouls. Each show is different, with different players, different games, and different audiences supplying new suggestions. The fans judge the scenes, and decide the winners and losers. And who knows, an audience member might even make it up on stage!

As Silicon Valley's longest-running show, we've been named Editor's Choice by The Wave Magazine as well as Best Comedy Venue and Best Local Theatre by the Metro's Best of the Silicon Valley. If you like TV's Whose Line Is It Anyway, you'll love ComedySportz!
