- Parent Education Nights
 - Prospect Parent Information night is set for March 8th meeting 6:30 to 7:30.

- San Jose Police Department in coordination with Prospect High School will host a parent information night, speaking to parents on teenage use of drug and alcohol. Topics include: awareness of current drug abuse of prescription drugs, pot edibles, etc; signs of teenagers who are taking drugs; current slang/words used in conversations relating to drugs; prevention and support; q&a session. Sponsored by PTSA. There will be two concurrent sessions, one in English and one in Spanish.
- This event is recommended for parents only; Moreland, EDS and DCS middle school families and CUHSD parents will be invited.
- Thomas will create a RSVP link from PTSA website and Lubna will start creating the flyer that will be posted and emailed. Ms. Hansen will autodial Prospect families at least once before the event (the Friday before the event).
- Prospect admin is working to host a grade-level assembly on this issue as well.
- Senior Scholarships
 - Thomas will post on the PTSA website the application for seniors to apply for PTSA scholarships. Depending on the number of applicants. We will decide whether to give 10-$250 scholarships or 5-$500 scholarships.
 - Deadline for seniors is March 30th. PTSA will approve scholarship awards presented by the committee in April PTSA meeting.
 - Lubna will find parents to volunteer to be on the senior scholarship committee.
- Next meeting will be Parent Information Night instead of traditional PTSA meeting on March 8, 2016 at 6:30-7:30 pm. Next traditional PTSA meeting will be April 12th, 2016.
